Rio Tinto shares gain on talk that BHP might improve offer to 4-for-1 - market reports

Date: Jun 13, 2011
Source: Daily Telegraph
Type: Auction/Privateization ; Regulatory issues

Story: Rio Tinto shares gained on talk that BHP Billiton might increase its share-based takeover bid, a Daily Telegraph market report said. The newspaper did not cite sources, but noted that the rumours were prompted by other chatter that the Australian government was willing to allow Chinalco (Zhong Guo Lv Ye) to add to its existing shareholding in Rio Tinto. If Chinalco did increase its stake in the listed Australian mining company, it would be a further obstacle to BHP's takeover offer, the item said. A Financial Times market report cited other press reports that the Australian government had consented to Chinalco increasing its stake. Chinalco is a Chinese aluminium company. Rio Tinto shares closed 227p up at 5827p, valuing the company at GBP 87.74bn (EUR 110.57bn).
